Real Estate Awards

Woodrow Berge Distinguished Service Award

- Recognizes a Corps RE employee for excellent public service to the Army, USACE, and the RE organization. Excellent leadership, foresight, tact, judgment and loyalty.
- Retires with exceptional overall high performance to the Corps of Engineers
- This award may be presented at anytime during the year.

RE Professional of the Year

- This award is given to a field employee who best exemplifies the traditions of RE service to the Nation in the performance of a specific act or consistently exemplary acts during the previous 12-month period.
- SUBMISSION of MORE THAN ONE employee form an MSC is encouraged!

RE Distinguished Service Award

- Recognize RE employees who leave the Corps after a distinguished career of at least ten years of USACE service and maintained a high level of support for Corps values and work objectives.
- AWARD is given ANYTIME during the year

RE Achievement Award

- Recognize an individual or team for outstanding achievement and communication across functional, geographical or other boundaries and by leveraging diverse knowledge and skills
- Nominations should be submitted to HQS by 15 Aug

W. Howard Armstrong Partnership Award

- Recognizes an individual from the Corps, another federal agency, or a partner from the industry that exemplifies similar characteristics and commitment level as Howard (former president of IRWA) such as:

  - Dedicated to the success of all partners involved; a visionary

  - Committed to making a difference through partnering

  - Diligent in meeting the needs of the partners

  - Responsible for creating synergistic (win-win) solutions to problems

  - Developing programs and initiatives that expand the knowledge base of the profession

- Nominations should be submitted to HQS by 15 Aug